

EAST END BOYS JOIN MOVEMENT

Ranks of Boy Scouts Filling With Fourth Ward Lads

PURPOSE OF THE ORGANIZATION

Endeavor is to Prevent the Recurrence of Evils Which Socialists are Fighting—Teaches Boys How to be Successful and Build up Their Characters.

Rev. R. C. Peters, pastor of the Eleventh Street M. E. church, who has been instrumental in inducing the boys of the East End to take an interest in the Boy Scout movement, reports that he has now on the rolls 24 Boy Scouts and 16 or 18 Boy Pioneers. These boys will soon be examined for advancement to Tenderfoot.

Rex McClure is scout master and Wilbur Kerr assistant scout master. A number of other boys in the East End will become identified with the movement this summer.

What Baden-Powell Says.

In regard to this movement, new to Clearfield people, its purpose is clearly set forth by the recognized Scout leader of the world, Lieutenant General Sir Robert S. Baden-Powell, who, in answer to criticisms of the movement by the Socialists at Portland, Oregon, pointed out that the aim of the Boy Scout movement is near that of the Socialistic party. He points out that the Boy Scout movement seeks not as does Socialism to cure present evils, but to prevent their reappearance in the present generation.

At Peace With All.

"Our attitude in the Boy Scout movement," he writes, "is that we do not wish to be in conflict with any political, educational or religious body, but we are very glad to have their advice or suggestions."

"Our aim is to be at peace with all, and to do our best in our own particular line, which, as it happens, is in its intentions as near that of the Socialists as any."

"Probably the majority of us are in sympathy with the Socialist aim though we may not altogether see with the same eye the practicability of some of its details or its methods."

To Prevent Social Evils.

"We in the Scouts desire, not so much to cure present social evils, as to prevent their recurrence in the rising generation; to try and lessen the great waste of human life, now going on in our city slums, where, so many thousands of our fellow-humans are living an existence of misery through being 'unemployable,' this is not always from their own faults, but simply because they have never been given a chance."

Will Make Boys Successful.

"Our main effort is to attract the boys and to beckon them on to the right road of success in life; we endeavor to equip them—especially the honest—with character and with craftsmanship, so that each of them may at least get a fair start. If after this he fails, it is then his own fault, and not, as at present, the fault of us who are in a position to give a helping hand to our less fortunate brothers."

"Socialists and others who have taken the trouble to examine our scheme are entirely sympathetic, friendly and helpful. They realize that the militarism urged against us is wholly a redupharge."

Selling Like Hot Cakes.

The paper issued by the Senior class of the High school, "The Breeze," is selling like hot cakes in January. The paper is so full of useful information, sandwiched with wit and humor, that it makes a rich feast for readers. "The Breeze" is on sale at several stores and at the opera house.

Long Search, by Hon. F. G. Harris For Parents' Resting Place.

In 1858 the father of Hon. Frank G. Harris died in Brookville, Jefferson county, where he had been living with his second wife. Because of the neglect or indifference of keepers of records in Jefferson county the exact location of the grave of the elder Harris was lost to view, and for many years Hon. F. G. Harris has been searching in vain for the burial place of his father.

Mr. Harris went to Brookville last week and, through information secured from a niece of the second wife, was able to trace the resting place of his father, and a handsome monument has been ordered by the Clearfield son to mark the last resting place of his father.

The mother of Mr. Harris died in Clarion in 1849 and diligent search has thus far failed to reveal her grave.

HIS FINGERS BURNED

A Number of Citizens Enriched the Fakers at the Circus.

A number of citizens—none of whom would contribute ten cents toward bringing an industry to town—dropped considerable money with fakers connected with the Wild West shows Monday.

One Italian citizen is short about $30 today, having bucked the tiger at the show under the impression that a gambler is an honest man who has loads of money to hand over to persons who take his fancy. The Italian explained after emerging from his hypnotized state that the faker "wava hees han' an' I geeve heem five dolla."

Other victims of the fakers are trying to keep their losses to themselves, but the sleek gentlemen of the circus carried quite a neat sum with them when they left Clearfield.

Hotels Closed Tight.

The two hotels at Curwensville have been closed and the town is now without a public house of entertainment.

CARRANZA'S ACT A NEW PUZZLE

Disrupts Plan of Mediators and Forestalls Action.

MAKES SALTILLO CAPITAL.

Selects Cabinet and Prepares to Step Into Huerta's Place the Moment the Dictator Is Overthrown—New State of Affairs to Force Rebels Into Peace Meeting.

Torreón, Mexico, June 2.—General Venustiano Carranza has assumed the office of provisional president of Mexico and begun the selection of his cabinet to forestall action by the mediation conference at Niagara Falls. In selecting a temporary government after the elimination of Huerta, Carranza has started for Saltillo to establish his provisional government.

The new capital will have the protection of nearly 5,000 troops of the army of General Pablo Gonzales, who has transferred his army from Monterrey to Saltillo. He will protect Saltillo while it remains the provisional capital and will send detachments of troops to garrison the smaller towns in that vicinity while Villa's main army is conducting the campaign against Zacatecas and San Luis Potosí. When the rebel army moves upon Mexico City General Gonzales and his army will escort the provisional president and his cabinet to the capital.

This action by the rebels, it is contended, puts them in line to be entrusted by the mediators with the task of governing Mexico after the Huerta government has been removed and until a new government can be chosen.

Carranza has selected portions of his cabinet and has decided upon Roberto V. Pesquera, formerly rebel diplomat-agent at Washington, to be governor of the federal district, in which is Mexico City. Rafael Zubaran Capmany, who is representing Carranza in Washington, is to be a cabinet minister and later ambassador to the United States. Luis Cabrera is to be minister of foreign relations.

General Candido Aguilar, who recently captured the port of Tuxpan, has been appointed by Carranza as governor of the state of Vera Cruz. He will establish his capital temporarily at Tuxpan.

Will Decide on Rebels.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 2.—Whether mediation proceedings are to continue with only the envoys of the United States and the Huerta government being heard; whether the Constitutionalists may be admitted or whether negotiations may be further held up by continued discussion on the subject of rebel representation was expected to be determined here.

Since Friday all progress has been blocked. Under present conditions A. B. C. mediators believe negotiations should be continued with only the American and Huerta representatives participating.

The Mexican envoys have not conferred with the mediators as to the point raised by the American commissioners. They are playing a waiting game, leaving the matter entirely in the hands of the mediators.

DIED IN PAST YEAR

Three Veterans Passed Away Since Memorial Day, 1913.

The following veterans who lived in Clearfield died since Memorial day, 1913:

Dr. Ash D. Bennett, assistant surgeon, 61st, P. V.

The grave of one soldier buried in the new Catholic cemetery and of ten or twelve veteran dead in the old Catholic cemetery were decorated on Saturday.

Mr. Reed has important official business that takes him to the middle west, and before he returns he will pay a short visit to two brothers in Portland, Oregon. While away from home Mr. Reed will have the Progress sent to him in order that he may learn what is transpiring in Clearfield.

IDENTIFY DEAD OF WRECKED LINER

Little Hope of Recovering More Bodies From Empress of Ireland

188 OF 969 ARE RECOVERED

Remains of Laurence Irving Identified. Many Remain in Hold of Sunken Liner and May Never Be Found—To Blow Up Wreckage, Which Menaces Navigation.

Quebec, June 2.—This is still a city of mourning, with flags at half mast, while down in "shed 27" at Louis basin men and women passed in and viewed the bodies from the Empress of Ireland disaster which still awaited identification.

Of the 188 brought here by the government boat Lady Grey fifty-four have been recognized, and these, with the identified dead at Rimouski, make the number of victims who have been identified seventy-five.

The Canadian Pacific Railway company gave out its latest estimate of the casualties. This places the number who perished at 969 and of those saved at 418.

It is the intention of the company to use every possible means to establish the identification of all the bodies found. They will be kept in the temporary morgue as long as possible.

Three bodies have been identified as those of Laurence Irving, the actor; his wife, Mabel Hackney, and Sir Henry Seton. The noted big game hunter, the body of Irving was identified by W. Hamilton of the Quebec Bank of Commerce. The body of Sir Henry was identified by Superintendent Elliott of the marine department of the Canadian Pacific.

No more bodies have been found. Without doubt many are held in the hold of the sunken liner. It is doubtful if the steamship will ever be raised.

Attention Directed to Probe.

Apart from the distressing scenes at the morgue and elsewhere, attention was directed to the forthcoming investigation by the Canadian government into the collision and to the statements made by Captain H. G. Kendall of the Empress before the coroner's court at Rimouski and by the owners of the Storstad.

The collier arrived at Montreal under her own steam, and while Captain Anderson refused to talk, the owners made a statement which in many ways conflicts with the story told by Captain Kendall to the coroner.

Alex. C. Rafter, chief bos'n's mate who was on the bridge of the Empress with Captain Kendall, says that the Storstad was going at the rate of between seven and eight miles an hour. Captain Kendall said that when he saw both the green and red lights of the Storstad about a ship's length away, which showed that she was coming directly for him, he ordered "full speed ahead," with his helm hard to port, hoping to clear the prow of the collier.

A COMING LEADER

High School Student is Sure to Make His Mark.

James Weber, a member of the class of '14, spoke at the Memorial day services at Grampian Saturday.

James is a wonderful worker and a brilliant student. He has power of vision and a will strong enough to enable him to get what he wants in the world. His classmates look forward to the time when the whole world will see that a new leader is again among men.

He Values His Badge.

Dr. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, who delivered the Memorial day address in Clearfield on Saturday, wears—only on occasions of this kind—a Grand Army button which was presented to him by Adjutant General Stewart some years ago, and which he values very highly.

Bank Greatly Improved.

The rooms occupied by the County national bank have been renovated and remodeled, during the past two weeks. The walls and ceilings have been retouched and redecorated in an attractive design, working a remarkable improvement in the appearance of the banking rooms.

Wholesale Grocery Robbed.

The Lauderbach Barber wholesale grocery building, near the Pennsylvania railroad station, was robbed of $5 in cash and $1.25 worth of stamps sometime last night.

Lee Hills, of South Second street, and his friend, William Markle, were here from Indiana to spend Memorial day.

EARLY MORNING WEDDING

Miss Esther Bryan Becomes Bride of Wade Irvin Stewart.

Wade Irvin Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stewart, of Pine St., and Miss Esther Laverne Bryan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bryan, of Nichols street, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents at 7:30 A.M. today. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Bender of the Trinity Methodist church, in the presence of the immediate families. The couple were attended by Miss Myrtle Bryan, sister of the bride and Lynn Stewart, brother of the bridegroom. The wedding march was played by Miss Grace Stewart.

The bride was dressed in a very becoming traveling suit and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. A delicious wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony.

Mr. Stewart is a rising young pharmacist, who graduated from the university of Pittsburgh last June. The bride is one of Clearfield's most estimable and popular young ladies.

They left on the 8:30 train for an extended tour of eastern cities. They will be at home after the 20th of June at their newly furnished home on Fifth street.

Their many friends wish them happiness and prosperity.

FAREWELL PARTY

Neighbors Give Prof. Cloos and Family a Pleasant Surprise.

A party of friends surprised Prof. I. H. Cloos and his family last evening by dropping in while they were attending the Senior class exercises. Upon coming home the Cloos family found their neighbors assembled with delicious refreshments prepared to give them a party.

The Clooses will soon leave town, as Prof. Cloos is planning to take a classical course at Grove City college and their friends took this opportunity to bid them farewell. A jolly good time followed, games were played and after the delightful repast which the guests had brought, they returned to their homes.

PUNCHED HOLE IN WALL OF HIS CELL

Prisoner Uses Bed Slat to Dig Out Plastering

Raymond Rex, a young man from Mahaffey, in jail for some minor crime, was the latest prisoner to demonstrate that it's an easy matter to pick a hole in the walls in any part of the county bastille. One day recently the jail attaches heard Raymond talking to the women on the second floor. An investigation proved that Raymond had taken a bed slat and punched a hole through his cell wall, which is on the second floor next to the women's department.

With the bed slat Raymond had made a hole about as big as a man's fist on his side of the cell wall and the plastering on the other side was removed for about a foot in diameter. Through this hole Raymond is said to have talked with the women, trying to find out the "lay of the land" in the front of the jail.

Raymond had very cunningly covered up his work by pasting with molasses some paper over the hole he had made. It is pretty certain that unless the jail cells are cemented there will be a general jail delivery for the newspapers to chronicle one of these fine days.

JUDGE BELL BETTER

Able to Preside at the Trial of Caro and Mastrianna.

Judge Bell had so far recovered this morning as to be able to preside at court, and the trial of Paul Caro and Raphael Mastrianna, charged with the murder of Antonio Matafiro, was resumed. Caro was under cross-examination by A. H. Woodward, of counsel for the commonwealth. Mr. Woodward gave the prisoners a strenuous time of it, and Caro contradicted some of his testimony given when he was on the stand in his own defense.

This afternoon Mastrianna was placed on the stand to tell what he knew of the affair that ended in the death of Matafiro.

Grampian Restaurant Burned.

The interior of the Dickey restaurant at Grampian was galled by fire at an early hour Monday morning.

SENIORS AMUSE BIG AUDIENCE

Exercises at Opera House of a Unique Character

FUN MIXED WITH AMUSEMENT

The High school senior class exercises were held in the New opera house Monday evening. They began at 8:30 and lasted until 11 o'clock.

For the first scene the stage was prettily arranged with chairs, divan cushions and plants, and all the class were seated. The first thing on the program was the welcome song by the class. This was followed by a short address of welcome and the presentation of suitable gifts to those of the class who merited them, by the class president, William Young.

Paul Napoleon Bonaparte Watson, was fitted out as a soldier, given a steed and sent as a special envoy from the class to Mexico.

She Masticated Gum.

Margaret Wrigley was presented with a large box of Wrigley's chewing gum, and after demonstrating the way to use it sent it into the audience to treat the faculty.

Donald Livingston, the renowned kicker, was hitched to a wagon and driven around the stage by Ruth Mapes.

Edna Froyd was given a fishing pole and line, baited with a kiss, and instructed to fish for a man in the audience. She caught one at the first casting of her line.

Mary Mann, being the only man in the class who did not possess a shaving mug, was presented with one.

Mantle Oration.

This was followed by a "Mantle Oration," by the class. Then came the mantle oration by Russell Flagg which he delivered in a very impressive manner, expressing the feeling of the class toward their school life. The Junior response by John Chann, showed that if the class lives up to all that it hopes to do it will be as well as it—just one step higher toward perfection than the preceding class. Then came a song, "Classes," by the class, and then the curtain.

The next performance was a novel one, The Senior Prophecy, by Donald Livingston. The baby pictures of each member of class were thrown on the screen, followed by a scene showing what they will be twenty years from this time.

Etatta Does Stunts.

Next came the song "1914" by the class. The curtain went up showing Etatta surrounded by plants and burning incense. Her manager called for volunteers from the audience and as none came at first was obliged to use two of the stage hands. She performed some marvelous tricks of mental telepathy, such as having some one behind her hold up colors, write numbers or names on a black board, point to places on a map, and, by having the audience concentrate their minds upon the object, told what it was. She answered some questions that were in the minds of the people in the audience.

Pretty Class Dance.

Pads were passed and questions written by people, but as they were not collected, only used to gain greater mental concentration, only those which were in the mind of the questioner could be answered.

The class, dressed in Yama Yama suits in the class colors, gave a very pretty dance and sang the class song and this finished the evening's entertainment.

The Junior class exercises will be held at the New opera house tonight and they promise to be good, so do not fail to attend.

Important Meeting.

An important joint meeting of all Fourth of July committees will be held in No. 1 fire hall this evening at 8 o'clock. All interested persons are urged to be present.

ADVICE TO GRADUATES.

If all the advice that has been
handed out to graduates of the public schools of this country were to be
gathered in one volume the tome
would be miles wide, long and high.
There were so many people who
think that High school graduates
stand in dire need of advice and counsel that the opportunity to present
these to the boys and girls who
are about to enter upon the serious affairs of life is always taken advantage of.

The graduates themselves know
that what they need is a good long
rest, a surcease from the worries of
book study, and while they sit patiently while orators talk to them of
what they should do when they get
out into the wide, wide world they
feel in their own hearts that they will be able to slay the dragons of the land of Laziness, escape the perils of Will-o'-the-Wisp swamps and eventually arrive, victorious and invigorated at the very apex of the hill of Fame.

But no boy or girl who has listened to a baccalaureate sermon or
read a newspaper editorial on the subject of ambition, determination
and perseverance has ever regretted
in their later years that they harken-
ed to the advice of those who have passed over the rough road of experience. The graduates of the Clearfield
High school should heed the good counsel that is being given them, for

they will need to be buoyed up by the
kind sentiments of their friends before they have reached the goal of
their ambition.

WILSONITES PERTURBED.

Colonel Roosevelt has stirred up
the Democrats, from President Wilson down to the ward water carrier,
by attacking the Democratic antitrust bill, now in congress. The colonel tears this measure to shreds as
being wholly and woefully inadequate
to bring about the dissolution of monopolies; and President Wilson and
cohort hasten to state that the bill
is still in a crude state, although it
has been before congress for more
than a month.

It is evident that Colonel Roosevelt
intends to keep tab on the Democratic administration, and no other
man in this country is better qualified to discover and condemn the failures of the Democratic party to redeem its platform pledges than is
the man who has kept both old political parties under observation for the past two years and who is not afraid
to speak of their shortcomings. If
the Democrats do not mend their
ways they must expect some severe
criticisms from the colonel.

Sunday seems to be the day upon
which automobile and boat accidents
take place, all because there are so many people who take that day upon
which to do their joy riding.

If you want to see an unbos-
sed state committee meeting go to Harrisburg Thursday when the Washington
party committee meets.

In the meantime, do not forget the
big celebration Clearfield will have
on July third and fourth.

GIRL SLAIN AFTER JOY RIDE IN AUTO

Police Seek Wealthy Man and
His Two Friends.

Gloversville, N. Y., June 2.—The body
of Miss Irene Sutton of Brooklyn was found in Saenudi park, bearing every
evidence that she was brutally murdered after a struggle in which she fought desperately for her life.

An examination of the body, made
by Drs. Blake and Robinson, showed that the young woman's right hand
was cut, while finger prints on her
throat gave token of the fact that she was choked. The coroner is holding
the report of the two physicians and
declines to make public their findings.
It is the theory of the officials that
Miss Sutton was murdered by men
with whom she was riding in an automobile, and that the murderers cun-
ningly placed the body near a roller
coaster in the park for the purpose of creating the impression that she had fallen from the car of the coaster.

Instructions were given to the county detectives to seek the owner and occupants of the automobile in which Miss Sutton is believed to have been
riding immediately prior to her death.

One of these men is said to be a prominent and wealthy resident of the section. With him in the automobile
were a young man and young woman.
It is reported that the names of all of these persons are in the hands of the district attorney.

Fire Destroys Kentucky Town.

Lexington, Ky., June 2.—A serious
fire raged for hours in the town of Corinth, in Grant county. The whole
town, which had a population of 300,
was practically destroyed. It is not known whether any persons were kil-
ed or injured in the conflagration.

AN EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Will go Into Effect With Bell Telephone Company Workmen.

It is announced by L. H. Kinnard,
vice president of the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania, that on an
after September 1, the nine-hour
working day of all plant department
workmen, except a small number of
maintenance and house service men,
will be reduced to eight hours.

The necessary readjustment of
working forces to care for the constantly increasing volume of construction and up-keep work will be undertaken at once and the pay roll schedules will be so arranged that the daily and weekly wages of all employees affected by this change will be maintained at their present amount, regardless of whether the employees now paid on an hourly,
daily or weekly basis.

In all about 3300 employees—including linemen, installers, repairmen, cable and conduit workers and testmen—will be benefited by this change.

A working day of not more than eight hours has been in effect in all other departments of the company
for sometime.

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers
you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your
back feels sore, don't get scared and
proceed to load your stomach with a
lot of drugs that excite the kidneys
and irritate the entire urinary tract.
Keep your kidneys clean like you
keep your bowels clean, by flushing
them with a mild, harmless salts
which removes the body's urinous
waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 gallons of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance
of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't
drink too much; also get from any
pharmacist about four ounces of Jad
Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass
of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys
will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and
lemon juice, combined with lithia, and
has been used for generations to clean
and stimulate clogged kidneys; also
to neutralize the acids in urine so
it no longer is a source of irritation,
thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent
lithia-water drink which everyone
should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try
this, also keep up the water drinking
and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

READY TO RESUME NEW HAVEN PROBE

Hearings to Continue in Washington on Wednesday.

New York, June 2.—Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel for the interstate commerce commission, held a conference in this city with the members of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. when the special examiners from the commission resumed their investigation of the firm's books. This work is preliminary to the resumption of the commission's hearings on Wednesday, at which officials and directors of the New Haven are expected to tell more of the affairs of the road.

It became known that Senator Norris, at whose instance the investigation is being made, claims to have in his possession a statement from Attorney General McKeynolds that the department of justice had no intention of criminally prosecuting the New Haven officials and had no facts upon which to base its prosecution.

Hearings in the New Haven case will be resumed in Washington Wednesday morning, when a number of New Haven directors will be present. The men expected to take the stand are former Senator Murray Crane, Morton Plant, Lawrence Minot, William McHarg and James S. Elton. The order in which these men will appear has not been definitely fixed.

Lewis Cass Ledyard, who has been refused permission to appear before the commission under the protection of immunity, but who was granted the privilege of voluntarily appearing providing he waives immunity, also is expected to be on hand.

Dying Wreck Hero Flies Train.
Cumberland, Md., June 2.—C. C. Eyster, fifty-five years old, a Baltimore & Ohio conductor, of Conneville, Pa., while nearly crazed from burns, had the presence of mind to flag a train in time to prevent it from running off the track torn up by the overturning of a passenger train, which resulted in five fatalities at Cooks Mills. Eyster died later.

THE HIGHER LIFE.

The one prudence in life is concentration, the one evil is dissipation, and it makes no difference whether our dissipations are coarse or fine, property and its cares, friends and a social habit or politics or music or feasting. Everything is good which takes away one playing thing and delusion more and drives us home to add one more stroke of faithful work.—Emerson.

What Woman or Girl is most Admired in the Summer Time Can You Guess?

Milady's Mirror

Sparkling Eyes.
If you want sparkling eyes you must study these important health essentials. Your eyes will not look bright if you don't keep well. Sitting in stuffy rooms all day long with the windows hermetically closed, eating things that don't agree with you, neglecting to take exercise of any kind at all—all this going against the health laws—will make your eyes dull and heavy.

If you care for your health take regular walks, eat food that agrees with you and have your rooms well ventilated day and night. Besides, you will be doing not only much toward the attainment of health, but of eye beauty as well. There is nothing that makes the eyes sparkle like perfect health.

Orange juice works wonders in making the eyes bright. Perhaps that is because this wholesome fruit is so good for the liver. Try taking a wine-glassful of orange juice every morning upon rising. There is nothing like it for brightening the eyes.

Never neglect sore eyes and red lids. The latter are fatal to eye beauty. When your eyes feel strained bathe them night and morning with an eye cupful of water in which a pinch of boracic powder has been dissolved. Be careful to dry the lids afterward, though, with a piece of clean cotton wool.

Bathing in salt and water is very good for red lids. You should try it if you have never done so.

For a Sallow Skin.

If you find that one of your prettiest gowns has ceased to be becoming because of a newly developed tendency to sallowness add baked lemons to your diet and practice faithfully each night and morning the following exercise:

Repeat ten times; then advance the right foot and attempt to touch the floor at the left side. Never mind if you cannot touch it the first trial; it may be weeks before you succeed, but in the meantime the color will be coming back to your cheeks.

Aromatic Tooth Paste.

This recipe for a tooth paste will be found useful in ordinary cases, but if you have allowed the tartar to remain on the teeth for some time it will be necessary for you to go to your dentist and have him remove the same for you. Do not let it stay on, for it will surely cause the teeth to decay.

For the paste take orris root powder, eight ounces; myrrh powder, eight ounces; oil of cloves, two drams, oil of lemon, two drams, and oil of rose, thirty drops, with solution of carmine sufficient to color and honey enough to form paste.

You can use the tooth paste for the ordinary cleansing of the teeth.

Hardening the Gums.

Peroxide of hydrogen will be found a great help in keeping the gums firm and healthy. It should be held in the mouth until it foams a little. It is antiseptic and will kill the many varieties of bacilli that infect the mouth and throat.

Children should be taken to a dentist at least twice a year and oftener when new teeth are coming. They should be taught to use dental floss after each meal. They should not be allowed to use soft toothpicks nor to pick the teeth with pins or metal of any sort. All crooked teeth should be straightened and the mouth kept sweet and clean by constant attention.

Skin Like Velvet.

A velvet bath is merely one that gives to the complexion the softness of velvet and tones up the skin to perfection. Velvet baths make the face glow and are delightful aids to beauty.

The materials are simple. One only requires finely powdered pumice stone, plenty of rough towels and brushes of all kinds.

If the bather has rough and coarse elbows fine sandpaper is used to massage them. First the arms are washed in soap and water, then sandpapered gently and afterward rubbed with olive oil or coconut butter.

Strengthening the Eyes.

An eye wash that will be found very helpful for weak eyes is the following: Take pure boric acid, one teaspoonful; camphor water, fifteen drops; boiling water, two-thirds of a cupful. If your eyes are in need of an oculist's attention it is advisable for you to consult one before the trouble grows worse and harder to cure. Do not read when your eyes burn and smart.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

CINDERELLA

"CINDERELLA"

Play to be Given at the Clearfield Chautauque in July.

When Chautauque, with its seven joyous days, begins here July 6, one of the most eagerly anticipated events of the week is the play "Cinderella," by the Avon players. This company of ten talented people, excellently costumed, produce the play under the personal management of Anna Oppen-

lander, who dramatized the familiar old story for the especial pleasure of the Junior Chautauque.

A "Mother Goose Party" is introduced where the familiar characters of story book days will be seen, and the familiar rhymes will be sung by capable musicians. "Cinderella" is a dramatic story, and all its possibilities for the stage have been realized in this version. Bring the children with you.

EACH CAPTAIN BLAMES OTHER

Anderson of the Storstad Says
Kendall Was at Fault.

TO CONDUCT A RIGID PROBE.

British and Canadian Governments
Co-operate in Investigation—Survivors
to Tell Their Stories Under Oath—Statement Issued in Behalf of Captain of Collier.

HOW CAPTAINS ARE SHIFTING WRECK BLAME.

This is how the captains of the Empress of Ireland and the Storstad
are shifting blame for the wreck.

Captain Kendall—I shouted to the
captain of the Storstad to keep his
ship at full speed ahead to fill the hole he had made. He then backed away. The Empress then began to fill and listed over rapidly. When
the Storstad struck us I had stopped
my engine. I then rang full ahead again when I saw the danger was so great. My object
was to try to run her ashore to save the passengers. Almost immediately the engine stopped the
ship filling and going all the time to starboard.

Captain Anderson—It has been said that the Storstad should not
have backed out of the hole made
by the collision. She did not do so.
As the vessels came together the Storstad's engines were ordered
ahead for the purpose of holding
her bow against the side of the Empress and thus preventing the
entrance of water into the vessel.
The headway of the Empress, however, swung the Storstad around in such a way as to twist the Storstad's
bow out of the hole and to
bend the bow itself over to port.

Ottawa, June 2.—The British and Canadian governments are co-operating
in the investigation into the sinking of the steamer Empress of Ireland. Each
captain blames the other for the wreck.
The disaster will be inquired into by
a royal commission of three. The British government has appointed George Vaux as its representative. He will reach Montreal June 8, when the inquiry will be commenced. The other members of the commission will be
judges of the Canadian admiralty court.

While the commission is organizing
Captain Lindsay, wreck commissioner
of the government, is carrying on a preliminary investigation.

All survivors will give evidence under oath before Captain Lindsay and
officers and members of the Empress
of Ireland and the collier which sent
her to the bottom will be examined.

The royal commission will report
upon what measures should be taken
to make navigation in the narrow waters of the St. Lawrence more secure.
A set of drastic shipping traffic rules
will be prepared and enforced.

Both Captain Kendall of the lost
steamer and Captain Anderson of the Storstad are in Montreal. They will be among the first heard.

A statement was issued on behalf of Captain Anderson, the first since the collision, in which he denies he was responsible.

Captain's Story.

The statement says:
"The vessels sighted each other when
far apart. The Empress of Ireland
was seen off the port bow of the Storstad."

"The Empress of Ireland's green or starboard light was visible to those on
the Storstad. Under these circumstances the rules of navigation gave
the Storstad the right of way."

"The heading of the Empress was
then changed in such a manner as
to put the vessels in a position to pass
safely. Shortly after a fog enveloped
first the Empress and then the Storstad."

"Fog signals were exchanged, and the Storstad's engines were at once slowed
and then stopped. Her heading remained unaltered."

As for the charge that the Storstad
backed out of the hole she had formed
the Empress of Ireland the statement
says, it is not true. Her engines were ordered ahead to hold her against the Irish side. It is stated that the headway of the Empress of Ireland twisted

the collier's bow out of the hole she
had made.

Captain Anderson says he remained
near the scene of the collision and he
points to the fact that his ship saved
350 persons as proof of this assertion.
The ship has been labeled on a $2,000,
000 claim against her by the owners of
the Empress of Ireland.

FRENCH CABINET RESIGNS.

Resignations Will Be Handed President
Poincare at Once.

Paris, June 2.—Premier Doumergue
and his cabinet resigned. The resignations were effective officially immediately, but the ministry will remain
in office a day because of the absence
of President Poincare who is in Brittain.

The resignation of the Doumergue
cabinet came with the first sitting of
the chamber of deputies. The ministry faced a deficit of about $100,
000,000 in the annual budget, the immediate necessity for $100,000,000 to replenish the almost empty French
treasury coffers and an extra loan of $200,000,000 to cover military and naval expenditures.

CAPTAIN ANDERSON.

Commander of Storstad
Defends His Action In Collision With Empress.

© 1911 by American Press Association

Captain Anderson, commander of the Storstad, the collier which ran into and sank the Empress of Ireland, says that his boat had the right of way. He also says that it was impossible to keep the
bow of the Storstad in the hole made in
the side of the Empress, because pressure
forced it out.

SLACK BUSINESS IS LIMITED, SAYS WILSON

Reiterates View That Depression Is Not General.

Washington, June 2.—In the belief
that the present business depression is confined to the industries and parts of
industry dependent upon the prosperity
of the railroads of the country, President Wilson still thinks that what depression there is is a "psychogenic."

Explaining the impressions which
were responsible for his remarks to
the middle western manufacturers who
called on him last week to plead for
protection from further anti-trust legislation at this time the president declared that he thought the general business of the country was proceeding in
a normal way. "There was," he said,
a depression that seems to radiate from
the railroad offices.

In example he pointed out that the business of the steel industry dependent on railroad extensions and all related industries had been forced to contract, and this in turn had been reflected in the market of the lenders
of money.

In spite of this, however, the president regards as significant and remarkable the statement of Mr. Galt of the Steel corporation that the general business of that organization was looking up.

Therefore, the president explained, it would seem that in other lines of the
steel industry related to the general
business of the country business was moving ahead. Therefore he said, he
had told the middle western manufac-

urers that if they would only believe
that prosperity was coming prosperity
would come with a jump.

He ventured the belief, resulting from talks which he has had with the secretary of commerce, that since the
tariff went into effect the exports of
the country have been increasing more rapidly than the imports. In fact he pointed out business depression is general throughout the whole world, that it is particularly true in this country that it is everywhere.

KUEHNLE, EX-BOSS, IS FREE.

Atlantic City Politician Leaves Prison
After Six Months.

Trenton, June 2.—Met by four
friends in a big touring car, Louis
Kuehnle, former Republican leader of Atlantic City, who was convicted of grafting in connection with a half million dollar water main contract while
president of the Atlantic City water
board, left the state prison a free man.

As he stepped through the big steel
gates he had no word to say as to his future plans. His friends were like wise silent. It is supposed the party

Kuehnle had paid a fine of $1,000
and served only half of a year's sentence, which was commuted by the state board of pardons.

Four other men, also convicted of
participation in the Atlantic City
frauds, whose sentences were com-
muted gained their freedom.

Rank of Boy Scouts Filling With Fourth Ward Lads

Endeavor is to Prevent the Recurrence of Evils Which Socialists are Fighting—Teaches Boys How to be Successful and Build up Their Characters.

Rev. R. C. Peters, pastor of the Eleventh Street M. E. church, who has been instrumental in inducing the boys of the East End to take an interest in the Boy Scout movement, reports that he has now on the rolls 24 Boy Scouts and 16 or 18 Boy Pioneers. These boys will soon be examined for advancement to Tenderfoot.

Rex McClure is scout master and Wilbur Kerr assistant scout master. A number of other boys in the East End will become identified with the movement this summer.

What Baden-Powell Says.

In regard to this movement, new to Clearfield people, its purpose is clearly set forth by the recognized Scout leader of the world, Lieutenant General Sir Robert S. Baden-Powell, who, answer to criticisms of the movement by the Socialists at Portland, Oregon, pointed out that the aim of the Boy Scout movement is near that of the Socialistic party. He points out that the Boy Scout movement seeks not as does Socialism to cure present evils, but to prevent their reappearance in the present generation.

At Peace With All.

"Our attitude in the Boy Scout movement," he writes, "is that we do not wish to be in conflict with any political, educational or religious body, but we are very glad to have their advice or suggestions."

"Our aim is to be at peace with all, and to do our best in our own particular line, which, as it happens, is in its intentions as near that of the Socialists as any."

To Prevent Social Evils.

"We in the Scouts desire, not so much to cure present social evils, as to prevent their recurrence in the rising generation; to try and lessen the great waste of human life, now going on in our city slums, where, so many thousands of our fellow-humans are living an existence of misery through being 'unemployable,' this is not always from their own faults, but simply because they have never been given a chance."

Will Make Boys Successful.

"Our main effort is to attract the boys and to beckon them on to the right road of success in life, we endeavor to equip them—especially the poorest—with character and with craftsmanship, so that each of them may at least get a fair start. If after this he fails, it is then his own fault, and not, as at present, the fault of us who are in a position to give a helping hand to our less fortunate brothers."

"Socialists and others who have taken the trouble to examine our scheme are entirely sympathetic, friendly and helpful. They realize that the militarism urged against us is wholly a gotupcharge."

Selling Like Hot Cakes.

The paper issued by the Senior class of the High school, "The Breeze," is selling like hot cakes in January. The paper is so full of useful information, sandwiched with wit and humor, that it makes a rich feast for readers. "The Breeze" is on sale at several stores and at the opera house.

Long Search, by Hon. F. G. Harris For Parents' Resting Place.

In 1858 the father of Hon. Frank G. Harris died in Brookville, Jefferson county, where he had been living with his second wife. Because of the neglect or indifference of keepers of records in Jefferson county the exact location of the grave of the elder Harris was lost to view, and for many years Hon. F. G. Harris has been searching in vain for the burial place of his father.

Mr. Harris went to Brookville last week and, through information secured from a niece of the second wife, was able to trace the resting place of his father, and a handsome monument has been ordered by the Clearfield son to mark the last resting place of his father.

The mother of Mr. Harris died in Clarion in 1849 and diligent search has thus far failed to reveal her grave.

HIS FINGERS BURNED

A number of citizens—none of whom would contribute ten cents toward bringing an industry to town—dropped considerable money with fakers connected with the Wild West shows Monday.

One Italian citizen is short about $30 today, having bucked the tiger at the show under the impression that a gambler is an honest man who has loads of money to hand over to persons who take his fancy. The Italian explained after emerging from his hypnotized state that the faker "wava hees han' an' I geeve heem five dolla."

Other victims of the fakers are trying to keep their losses to themselves, but the sleek gentlemen of the circus carried quite a neat sum with them when they left Clearfield.

Hotels Closed Tight.

The two hotels at Curwensville have been closed and the town is now without a public house of entertainment.

CARRANZA'S ACT A NEW PUZZLE

Disrupts Plan of Mediators and Forestalls Action.

Selects Cabinet and Prepares to Step Into Huerta's Place the Moment the Dictator Is Overthrown—New State of Affairs to Force Rebels Into Peace Meeting.

Turkey, June 2.—General Venustiano Carranza has assumed the office of provisional president of Mexico and begun the selection of his cabinet to forestall action by the mediation conference at Niagara Falls, in selecting a temporary government after the elimination of Huerta. Carranza has started for Saltillo to establish his provisional government.

The new capital will have the protection of nearly 5,000 troops of the army of General Pablo Gonzalez, who has transferred his army from Monterrey to Saltillo. He will protect Saltillo while it remains the provisional capital and will send detachments of troops to garrison the smaller towns in that vicinity while Villa's main army is conducting the campaign against Zacatecas and San Luis Potosi. When the rebel army moves upon Mexico City General Gonzalez and his army will escort the provisional president and his cabinet to the capital.

This action by the rebels, it is contended, puts them in line to be entrusted by the mediators with the task of governing Mexico after the Huerta government has been removed and until a new government can be chosen.

Carranza has selected portions of his cabinet and has decided upon Roberto V. Pesquera, formerly rebel diplomat agent at Washington, to be governor of the federal district, in which is Mexico City. Rafael Zubaran Capmany, who is representing Carranza in Washington, is to be a cabinet minister and later ambassador to the United States. Luis Cabrera is to be minister of foreign relations.

General Camilo Aguilar, who recently captured the port of Tuxpan, has been appointed by Carranza as governor of the state of Vera Cruz. He will establish his capital temporarily at Tuxpan.

Will Decide on Rebels.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 2.—Whether mediation proceedings are to continue with only the envoys of the United States and the Huerta government being heard, whether the Constitutionalists may be admitted or whether negotiations may be further held up by continued discussion on the subject of rebel representation was expected to be determined here.

Since Friday all progress has been blocked. Under present conditions the A. B. C. mediators believe negotiations should be continued with only the American and Huerta representatives participating.

The Mexican envoys have not conferred with the mediators as to the point raised by the American commissioners. They are playing a waiting game, leaving the matter entirely in the hands of the mediators.

DIED IN PAST YEAR

Three Veterans Passed Away Since Memorial Day, 1913.

The following veterans who lived in Clearfield died since Memorial day, 1913:

Joseph H. Rowles, Co. B, 100th P. V., "Round Heads."

W. A. Nelson, Co. K, 34th P. V.

Dr. Ash D. Bennett, assistant surgeon, 61st, P. V.

The grave of one soldier buried in the new Catholic cemetery and of ten or twelve veteran dead in the old Catholic cemetery were decorated on Saturday.

On a Visit to the West.

Register and Recorder R. M. Reed, left this morning for the west. Mr. Reed has important official business that takes him to the middle west, and before he returns he will pay a short visit to two brothers in Portland, Oregon. While away from home Mr. Reed will have the Progress sent to him in order that he may learn what is transpiring in Clearfield.

A Ten-Cent Lunch.

The Woman's Foreign Mission society of the 11th Street M. E. church will hold a social meeting and a 10-cent lunch, at 2.30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. S. J. Waterworth, on Saturday, June 27.

IDENTIFY DEAD OF WRECKED LINER

Little Hope of Recovering More Bodies From Empress of Ireland

Remains of Laurence Irving Identified. Many Remain in Hold of Sunken Liner and May Never Be Found—To Blow Up Wreckage, Which Menaces Navigation.

Quebec, June 2.—This is still a city of mourning, with flags at half mast, while down in "shed 27" at Louis basin men and women passed in and viewed the bodies from the Empress of Ireland disaster which still awaited identification.

Of the 188 brought here by the government boat Lady Grey fifty-four have been recognized, and these, with the identified dead at Rimouski, make the number of victims who have been identified seventy-five.

The Canadian Pacific Railway company gave out its latest estimate of the casualties. This places the number who perished at 969 and of those saved at 418.

It is the intention of the company to use every possible means to establish the identification of all the bodies found. They will be kept in the temporary morgue as long as possible.

Three bodies have been identified as those of Laurence Irving, the actor; his wife, Mabel Hackney, and Sir Henry Seton. The noted big game hunter, the body of Irving was identified by W. Hamilton of the Quebec Bank of Commerce. The body of Sir Henry was identified by Superintendent Elliott of the marine department of the Canadian Pacific.

No more bodies have been found. Without doubt many are held in the hold of the sunken liner. It is doubtful if the steamship will ever be raised.

Attention Directed to Probe.

Apart from the distressing scenes at the morgue and elsewhere, attention was directed to the forthcoming investigation by the Canadian government into the collision and to the statements made by Captain H. G. Kendall of the Empress before the coroner's court at Rimouski and by the owners of the Starstad.

The collier arrived at Montreal under her own steam, and while Captain Anderson refused to talk, the owners made a statement which in many ways conflicts with the story told by Captain Kendall to the coroner.

A COMING LEADER

High School Student is Sure to Make His Mark.

James Weber, a member of the class of '14, spoke at the Memorial day services at Grampian Saturday.

James is a wonderful worker and a brilliant student. He has power of vision and a will strong enough to enable him to get what he wants in the world. His classmates look forward to the time when the whole world will see that a new leader is again among men.

He Values His Badge.

Dr. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, who delivered the Memorial day address in Clearfield on Saturday, wears—only on occasions of this kind—a Grand Army button which was presented to him by Adjutant General Stewart some years ago, and which he values very highly.

Bank Greatly Improved.

The rooms occupied by the County national bank have been renovated and remodeled during the past two weeks. The walls and ceilings have been retouched and redecorated in an attractive design, working a remarkable improvement in the appearance of the banking rooms.

Wholesale Grocery Robbed.

The Lauderbach Barber wholesale grocery building, near the Pennsylvania railroad station, was robbed of $5 in cash and $1.25 worth of stamps sometime last night.

Lee H. H. of South Second street, and his friend, William Mark, were here from Indiana to spend Memorial day.

Miss Esther Bryan Becomes Bride of Wade Irvin Stewart.

Wade Irvin Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stewart, of Pine St., and Miss Esther Laverne Bryan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bryan, of Nichols street, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents at 7:30 A.M. today. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Bender of the Trinity Methodist church, in the presence of the immediate families. The couple were attended by Miss Myrtle Bryan, sister of the bride and Lynn Stewart, brother of the bridegroom. The wedding march was played by Miss Grace Stewart.

The bride was dressed in a very becoming traveling suit and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. A delicious wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony.

Mr. Stewart is a rising young pharmacist, who graduated from the university of Pittsburgh last June. The bride is one of Clearfield's most estimable and popular young ladies.

They left on the 8:30 train for an extended tour of eastern cities. They will be at home after the 20th of June at their newly furnished home on Fifth street.

Their many friends wish them happiness and prosperity.

Neighbors Give Prof. Cloos and Family a Pleasant Surprise.

A party of friends surprised Prof. I. H. Cloos and his family last evening by dropping in while they were attending the Senior class exercises. Upon coming home the Cloos family found their neighbors assembled with delicious refreshments prepared to give them a party.

The Clooses will soon leave town, as Prof. Cloos is planning to take a classical course at Grove City college and their friends took this opportunity to bid them farewell. A jolly good time followed, games were played and after the delightful repast which the guests had brought, they returned to their homes.

PUNCHED HOLE IN WALL OF HIS CELL

Raymond Rex, a young man from Mahaffey, in jail for some minor crime, was the latest prisoner to demonstrate that it's an easy matter to pick a hole in the walls in any part of the county bastille. One day recently the jail attaches heard Raymond talking to the women on the second floor. An investigation proved that Raymond had taken a bed slat and punched a hole through his cell wall, which is on the second floor next to the women's department.

With the bed slat Raymond had made a hole about as big as a man's fist on his side of the cell wall and the plastering on the other side was removed for about a foot in diameter. Through this hole Raymond is said to have talked with the women, trying to find out the "lay of the land" in the front of the jail.

Raymond had very cunningly covered up his work by pasting with molasses some paper over the hole he had made. It is pretty certain that unless the jail cells are cemented there will be a general jail delivery for the newspapers to chronicle one of these fine days.

Able to Preside at the Trial of Caro and Mastrianna.

Judge Bell had so far recovered this morning as to be able to preside at court, and the trial of Paul Caro and Raphael Mastrianna, charged with the murder of Antonio Matafiro, was resumed. Caro was under cross-examination by A. H. Woodward, of counsel for the commonwealth. Mr. Woodward gave the prisoners a strenuous time of it, and Caro contradicted some of his testimony given when he was on the stand in his own defense.

This afternoon Mastrianna was placed on the stand to tell what he knew of the affair that ended in the death of Matafiro.

Gramplan Restaurant Burned.

The interior of the Dickey restaurant at Gramplan was gutted by fire at an early hour Monday morning.

SENIORS AMUSE BIG AUDIENCE

Exercises at Opera House of a Unique Character

The High school senior class exercises were held in the New opera house Monday evening. They began at 8:30 and lasted until 11 o'clock.

For the first scene the stage was prettily arranged with chairs, divan cushions and plants, and all the class were seated. The first thing on the program was the welcome song by the class. This was followed by a short address of welcome and the presentation of suitable gifts to those of the class who merited them, by the class president, William Young.

Paul Napoleon Bonaparte Watson, was fitted out as a soldier, given a steed and sent as a special envoy from the class to Mexico.

She Masticated Gum.

Margaret Wrigley was presented with a large box of Wrigley's chewing gum, and after demonstrating the way to use it sent it into the audience to treat the faculty.

Donald Livingston, the renowned kicker, was hitched to a wagon and driven around the stage by Ruth Mapes.

Edna Froyd was given a fishing pole and line, baited with a fish, and instructed to fish for a man in the audience. She caught one at the first casting of her line.

Mary Mann, being the only man in the class who did not possess a shaving mug, was presented with one.

Mantle Oration.

This was followed by "The Mantle," by the class. Then came the mantle oration by Russell Flagg which he delivered in a very impressive manner, expressing the feeling of the class toward their school life. The Junior response by John Chann, showed that if the class lives up to all that it hopes to do it will be as well as it—just one step higher toward perfection than the preceding class. Then came a song, "Classes," by the class, and then the curtain.

The next performance was a novel one, The Senior Prophecy, by Donald Livingston. The baby pictures of each member of class were thrown on the screen, followed by a scene showing what they will be twenty years from this time.

Etta Does Stunts.

Next came the song "1914" by the class. The curtain went up showing Etta surrounded by plants and burning incense. Her manager called for volunteers from the audience and as none came at first was obliged to use two of the stage hands. She performed some marvelous tricks of mental telepathy, such as having some one behind her hold up colors, write numbers or names on a black board, point to places on a map, and, by having the audience concentrate their minds upon the object, told what it was. She answered some questions that were in the minds of the people in the audience.

Pretty Class Dance.

Pads were passed and questions written by people, but as they were not collected, only used to gain greater mental concentration, only those which were in the mind of the questioner could be answered.

The class, dressed in Yama Yama suits in the class colors, gave a very pretty dance and sang the class song and this finished the evening's entertainment.

The Junior class exercises will be held at the New opera house tonight and they promise to be good, so do not fail to attend.

Important Meeting.

An important joint meeting of all Fourth of July committees will be held in No. 1 fire hall this evening at 8 o'clock. All interested persons are urged to be present.

Good evening! Feel better now

ADVICE TO GRADUATES.

If all the advice that has been
handed out to graduates of the public
schools of this country were to be
gathered in one volume the tome
would be miles wide, long and high.
There were so many people who
think that High school graduates
stand in dire need of advice and counsel that the opportunity to present
these to the boys and girls who
are about to enter upon the serious affairs of life is always taken advantage of.

The graduates themselves know
that what they need is a good long
rest, a surcease from the worries of
book study, and while they sit patient-
ly while orators talk to them of
what they should do when they get
out into the wide, wide world they
feel in their own hearts that they
will be able to slay the dragons of the land of Laziness, escape the perils of Will o' the Wisp swamps and
eventually arrive, victorious and invigorated at the very apex of the
hill of Fame.

But no boy or girl who has listen-
ed to a baccalaureate sermon or
read a newspaper editorial on the
subject of ambition, determination
and perseverance has ever regretted
in their later years that they harken-
ed to the advice of those who have
passed over the rough road of experience. The graduates of the Clearfield
High school should heed the good
counsel that is being given them, for

they will need to be buoyed up by the
kind sentiments of their friends before they have reached the goal of
their ambition.

WILSONITES PERTURBED.

Colonel Roosevelt has stirred up
the Democrats, from President Wil-
son down to the ward water carrier,
by attacking the Democratic anti-
trust bill, now in congress. The colonel tears this measure to shreds as
being wholly and woefully inadequate
to bring about the dissolution of
monopolies; and President Wilson and
cohort hasten to state that the bill
is still in a crude state, although it
has been before congress for more
than a month.

It is evident that Colonel Roosevelt
intends to keep tab on the Democratic administration, and no other
man in this country is better qualified to discover and condemn the failures of the Democratic party to re-
deem its platform pledges than is
the man who has kept both old political parties under observation for the
past two years and who is not afraid
to speak of their shortcomings. If
the Democrats do not mend their
ways they must expect some severe
criticisms from the colonel.

Sunday seems to be the day upon
which automobile and boat accidents
take place, all because there are so
many people who take that day upon
which to do their joy riding.

If you want to see an unbossed
state committee meeting go to Harrisburg Thursday when the Washington
party committee meets.

In the meantime, do not forget the
big celebration Clearfield will have
on July third and fourth.

GIRL SLAIN AFTER JOY RIDE IN AUTO

Police Seek Wealthy Man and
His Two Friends.

Gloversville, N. Y., June 2.—The body
of Miss Irene Sutton of Brooklyn was
found in Saenudi park, bearing every
evidence that she was brutally mur-
dered after a struggle in which she
fought desperately for her life.

An examination of the body, made
by Drs. Blake and Robinson, showed
that the young woman's right hand
was cut, while finger prints on her
throat gave token of the fact that she
was choked. The coroner is holding
the report of the two physicians and
declines to make public their findings.
It is the theory of the officials that
Miss Sutton was murdered by men
with whom she was riding in an automobile, and that the murderers cun-
ningly placed the body near a roller
coaster in the park for the purpose of
creating the impression that she had
fallen from the car of the coaster.

Instructions were given to the county detectives to seek the owner and
occupants of the automobile in which Miss Sutton is believed to have been
riding immediately prior to her death.

One of these men is said to be a
prominent and wealthy resident of the
section. With him in the automobile
were a young man and young woman.
It is reported that the names of all of
these persons are in the hands of the
district attorney.

Fire Destroys Kentucky Town.

Lexington, Ky., June 2.—A serious
fire raged for hours in the town of Corinth, in Grant county. The whole
town, which had a population of 300,
was practically destroyed. It is not
known whether any persons were kil-
ed or injured in the conflagration.

Will go Into Effect With Bell Tele-
phone Company Workmen.

It is announced by L. H. Kinnard,
vice president of the Bell Telephone
company of Pennsylvania, that on an
after September 1, the nine-hour
working day of all plant department
workmen, except a small number of
maintenance and house service men,
will be reduced to eight hours.

The necessary re-adjustment of
working forces to care for the constantly increasing volume of construction and up-keep work will be under-
taken at once and the pay roll sched-

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers
you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your
back feels sore, don't get scared and
proceed to load your stomach with a
lot of drugs that excite the kidneys
and irritate the entire urinary tract.
Keep your kidneys clean like you
keep your bowels clean, by flushing
them with a mild, harmless salts
which removes the body's urinous
waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of
the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 gal-
lons of acid and waste, so we can read-
ily understand the vital importance
of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't
drink too much; also get from any
pharmacist about four ounces of Jad
Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass
of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys
will act fine. This famous salts is
made from the acid of grapes and
lemon juice, combined with lithia, and
has been used for generations to clean
and stimulate clogged kidneys; also
to neutralize the acids in urine so
it no longer is a source of irritation,
thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot in-
jure; makes a delightful effervescent
lithia-water drink which everyone
should take now and then to keep
their kidneys clean and active. Try
this, also keep up the water drinking
and no doubt you will wonder what
became of your kidney trouble and
backache.

READY TO RESUME NEW HAVEN PROBE

Hearings to Continue in Washington on Wednesday.

New York, June 2.—Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel for the interstate commerce commission, held a conference in this city with the members of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. when the special examiners from the commission resumed their investigation of the firm's books. This work is preliminary to the resumption of the commission's hearings on Wednesday, at which officials and directors of the New Haven are expected to tell more of the affairs of the road.

It became known that Senator Norris, at whose instance the investigation is being made, claims to have in his possession a statement from Attorney General McKeynolds that the department of justice had no intention of criminally prosecuting the New Haven officials and had no facts upon which to base its prosecution.

Hearings in the New Haven case will be resumed in Washington Wednesday morning, when a number of New Haven directors will be present. The men expected to take the stand are former Senator Murray Crane, Morton Plant, Lawrence Minot, William McHarg and James S. Elton. The order in which these men will appear has not been definitely fixed.

Lewis Cass Ledyard, who has been refused permission to appear before the commission under the protection of immunity, but who was granted the privilege of voluntarily appearing providing he waives immunity, also is expected to be on hand.

Dying Wreck Hero Flies Train.
Cumberland, Md., June 2.—C. C. Eyster, fifty-five years old, a Baltimore & Ohio conductor, of Conneville, Pa., while nearly crazed from burns, had the presence of mind to flag a train in time to prevent it from running off the track torn up by the overturning of a passenger train, which resulted in five fatalities at Cooks Mills. Eyster died later.

THE HIGHER LIFE.

The one prudence in life is concentration, the one evil is dissipation, and it makes no difference whether our dissipations are coarse or fine, property and its cares, friends and a social habit or politics or music or feasting. Everything is good which takes away one playing thing and delusion more and drives us home to add one more stroke of faithful work.—Emerson.

What Woman or Girl is most Admired in the Summer Time Can You Guess?

Milady's Mirror

Sparkling Eyes.

If you want sparkling eyes you must study these important health essentials. Your eyes will not look bright if you don't keep well. Sitting in stuffy rooms all day long with the windows hermetically closed, eating things that don't agree with you, neglecting to take exercise of any kind at all—all this going against the health laws—will make your eyes dull and heavy.

If you care for your health take regular walks, eat food that agrees with you and have your rooms well ventilated day and night. Besides, you will be doing not only much toward the attainment of health, but of eye beauty as well. There is nothing that makes the eyes sparkle like perfect health.

Orange juice works wonders in making the eyes bright. Perhaps that is because this wholesome fruit is so good for the liver. Try taking a wineglassful of orange juice every morning upon rising. There is nothing like it for brightening the eyes.

Never neglect sore eyes and red lids. The latter are fatal to eye beauty. When your eyes feel strained bathe them night and morning with an eye cupful of water in which a pinch of boracic powder has been dissolved. Be careful to dry the lids afterward, though, with a piece of clean cotton wool.

Bathing in salt and water is very good for red lids. You should try it if you have never done so.

For a Sallow Skin.

If you find that one of your prettiest gowns has ceased to be becoming because of a newly developed tendency to sallowness add baked lemons to your diet and practice faithfully each night and morning the following exercise:

Repeat ten times; then advance the right foot and attempt to touch the floor at the left side. Never mind if you cannot touch it the first trial; it may be weeks before you succeed, but in the meantime the color will be coming back to your cheeks.

Aromatic Tooth Paste.

This recipe for a tooth paste will be found useful in ordinary cases, but if you have allowed the tartar to remain on the teeth for some time it will be necessary for you to go to your dentist and have him remove the same for you. Do not let it stay on, for it will surely cause the teeth to decay.

For the paste take orris root powder, eight ounces; myrrh powder, eight ounces; oil of cloves, two drams, oil of lemon, two drams, and oil of rose, thirty drops, with solution of carmine sufficient to color and honey enough to form paste.

You can use the tooth paste for the ordinary cleansing of the teeth.

Hardening the Gums.

Peroxide of hydrogen will be found a great help in keeping the gums firm and healthy. It should be held in the mouth until it foams a little. It is antiseptic and will kill the many varieties of bacilli that infect the mouth and throat.

Children should be taken to a dentist at least twice a year and oftener when new teeth are coming. They should be taught to use dental floss after each meal. They should not be allowed to use soft toothpicks nor to pick the teeth with pins or metal of any sort. All crooked teeth should be straightened and the mouth kept sweet and clean by constant attention.

Skin Like Velvet.

A velvet bath is merely one that gives to the complexion the softness of velvet and tones up the skin to perfection. Velvet baths make the face glow and are delightful aids to beauty.

The materials are simple. One only requires finely powdered pumice stone, plenty of rough towels and brushes of all kinds.

If the bather has rough and coarse elbows fine sandpaper is used to massage them. First the arms are washed in soap and water, then sandpapered gently and afterward rubbed with olive oil or coconut butter.

Strengthening the Eyes.

An eye wash that will be found very helpful for weak eyes is the following: Take pure boric acid, one teaspoonful; camphor water, fifteen drops; boiling water, two-thirds of a cupful. If your eyes are in need of an oculist's attention it is advisable for you to consult one before the trouble grows worse and harder to cure. Do not read when your eyes burn and smart.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

CINDERELLA

"CINDERELLA"

Play to be Given at the Clearfield Chautauque in July.

When Chautauque, with its seven joyous days, begins here July 6, one of the most eagerly anticipated events of the week is the play "Cinderella," by the Avon players. This company of ten talented people, excellently costumed, produce the play under the personal management of Anna Oppen-

lander, who dramatized the familiar old story for the especial pleasure of the Junior Chautauque.

A "Mother Goose Party" is introduced where the familiar characters of story book days will be seen, and the familiar rhymes will be sung by capable musicians. "Cinderella" is a dramatic story, and all its possibilities for the stage have been realized in this version. Bring the children with you.

Anderson of the Storstad Says
Kendall Was at Fault.

TO CONDUCT A RIGID PROBE.

British and Canadian Governments
Co-operate in Investigation—Survivors
to Tell Their Stories Under Oath—Statement Issued in Behalf of
Captain of Collier.

HOW CAPTAINS ARE SHIFTING WRECK BLAME.

This is how the captains of the
Empress of Ireland and the Storstad
are shifting blame for the wreck.

Captain Kendall—I shouted to the
captain of the Storstad to keep his
ship at full speed ahead to fill the
hole he had made. He then backed
away. The Empress then began to fill and listed over rapidly. When
the Storstad struck us I had stopped
my engine. I then rang full
ahead again when I saw the
danger was so great. My object
was to try to run her aground to save the passengers. Almost immediately the engine stopped the
ship filling and going all the time to starboard.

Captain Anderson—It has been
said that the Storstad should not
have backed out of the hole made
by the collision. She did not do so.
As the vessels came together the Storstad's engines were ordered
ahead for the purpose of holding
her bow against the side of the Empress and thus preventing the
entrance of water into the vessel.
The headway of the Empress, however, swung the Storstad around in
such a way as to twist the Storstad's
bow out of the hole and to
bend the bow itself over to port.

Ottawa, June 2.—The British and Canadian governments are co-operating
in the investigation into the sinking of
the steamer Empress of Ireland. Each
captain blames the other for the wreck.
The disaster will be inquired into by
a royal commission of three. The British government has appointed
George Vaux as its representative. He
will reach Montreal June 8, when the
inquiry will be commenced. The other members of the commission will be
judges of the Canadian admiralty court.

While the commission is organizing
Captain Lindsay, wreck commissioner
of the government, is carrying on a
preliminary investigation.

All survivors will give evidence under
oath before Captain Lindsay and
officers and members of the Empress
of Ireland and the collier which sent
her to the bottom will be examined.

The royal commission will report
upon what measures should be taken
to make navigation in the narrow waters of the St. Lawrence more secure.
A set of drastic shipping traffic rules
will be prepared and enforced.

Both Captain Kendall of the lost
steamer and Captain Anderson of the Storstad are in Montreal. They will
be among the first heard.

A statement was issued on behalf of Captain Anderson, the first since the
collision, in which he denies he was responsible.

Captain's Story.

The statement says:
"The vessels sighted each other when
far apart. The Empress of Ireland
was seen off the port bow of the Storstad."

"The Empress of Ireland's green or
starboard light was visible to those on
the Storstad. Under these circumstances the rules of navigation gave
the Storstad the right of way."

"The heading of the Empress was
then changed in such a manner as
to put the vessels in a position to pass
safely. Shortly after a fog enveloped
first the Empress and then the Storstad."

"Fog signals were exchanged, and the Storstad's engines were at once slowed
and then stopped. Her heading remained unaltered."

As for the charge that the Storstad
backed out of the hole she had formed
the Empress of Ireland the statement
says, it is not true. Her engines were ordered ahead to hold her against the Irish side. It is stated that the head-
way of the Empress of Ireland twisted

the collier's bow out of the hole she
had made.

Captain Anderson says he remained
near the scene of the collision and he
points to the fact that his ship saved
350 persons as proof of this assertion.
The ship has been labeled on a $2,000,
000 claim against her by the owners of
the Empress of Ireland.

FRENCH CABINET RESIGNS.

Resignations Will Be Handed President
Poincare at Once.

Paris, June 2.—Premier Doumergue
and his cabinet resigned. The resignations were effective officially immediately, but the ministry will remain
in office a day because of the absence
of President Poincare who is in Brit-
tain.

The resignation of the Doumergue
cabinet came with the first sitting of
the chamber of deputies. The ministry faced a deficit of about $100,
000,000 in the annual budget, the immediate necessity for $100,000,000 to
replenish the almost empty French
treasury coffers and an extra loan of $200,000,000 to cover military and naval expenditures.

CAPTAIN ANDERSON.

Commander of Storstad
Defends His Action In Collision With Empress.

© 1911 by American Press Association

Captain Anderson, commander of the Storstad, the collier which ran into and
sank the Empress of Ireland, says that
his boat had the right of way. He also
says that it was impossible to keep the
bow of the Storstad in the hole made in
the side of the Empress, because pressure
forced it out.

SLACK BUSINESS IS LIMITED, SAYS WILSON

Reiterates View That Depression Is Not General.

Washington, June 2.—In the belief
that the present business depression is
confined to the industries and parts of
industry dependent upon the prosperity
of the railroads of the country, President Wilson still thinks that what depression there is is a "psychogenic."

Explaining the impressions which
were responsible for his remarks to
the middle western manufacturers who
called on him last week to plead for
protection from further anti-trust legislation at this time the president declared that he thought the general business of the country was proceeding in
a normal way. "There was," he said,
a depression that seems to radiate from
the railroad offices.

In example he pointed out that the
business of the steel industry depend-
ent on railroad extensions and all related industries had been forced to
contract, and this in turn had been
reflected in the market of the lenders
of money.

In spite of this, however, the president regards as significant and remarkable the statement of Mr. Galt of the Steel corporation that the general business of that organization was looking up.

Therefore, the president explained, it
would seem that in other lines of the
steel industry related to the general
business of the country business was
moving ahead. Therefore, he said, he
had told the middle western manufac-

urers that if they would only believe
that prosperity was coming prosperity
would come with a jump.

He ventured the belief, resulting
from talks which he has had with the
secretary of commerce, that since the
tariff went into effect the exports of
the country have been increasing more
rapidly than the imports. In fact, he pointed out, business depression is general throughout the whole world, and it is particularly true and declared that it is his belief in this country that business is not in this country than anywhere else.

KUEHNLE, EX-BOSS, IS FREE.

Atlantic City Politician Leaves Prison
After Six Months.

Trenton, June 2.—Met by four
friends in a big touring car, Louis
Kuehnle, former Republican leader of Atlantic City, who was convicted of
grafting in connection with a half million dollar water main contract while
president of the Atlantic City water
board, left the state prison a free man.

As he stepped through the big steel
gates he had no word to say as to his
future plans. His friends were like

Kuehnle had paid a fine of $1,000
and served only half of a year's sentence, which was commuted by the
state board of pardons.

Four other men, also convicted of
participation in the Atlantic City
tricks, whose sentences were commuted gained their freedom.
